

Risto Holopainen is a Swedish composer based in Norway. He studied composition at the Norwegian State Academy of Music and musicology at the University of Oslo and received a PhD with a research project on self-organised sound with autonomous instruments in 2012. His œuvre includes electroacoustic music, chamber music, radiophonic compositions, videos and animations, and music for dance. He has been commissioned by a number of Norwegian ensembles (Poing, asamisimasa, Oslo Sinfonietta and others). In 2008 MERE Records released his first CD Garbage Collection. He has later self-published a few albums, e.g., the cassette Sozialrealismus and the CD Circular Golomb Rulers.

<https://ristoid.net/>